Dear Sir:

We have not received any reply to our letter written about ten months ago.

As you do not live very far from our office, we would appreciate it if you would call at our office personally, so that we may discuss the matter more thoroughly.

If you do not have time to call personally, please write us whether you wish to have us discontinue this matter, or whether you wish to renew the case.

Very truly yours,

Notary Public

Dear Sir:

As we are anxious to know whether Anna Lisa Weilbach had come into this country as yet, please write us.

Our last letter to her was December 8, 1947 to which we had no reply.

Also, please write us whether she is still living in Germany as a law recently passed by which 200,000 displaced persons will be permitted to enter this country, and we may be able to help her.

Awaiting your early reply, I remain

Very truly yours,

Notary Public.

Dear Madam:

On December 5th, I forwarded to you at the above address, at the request of your fiancé, Joseph L. Tudryn, all necessary documents in bringing you into the United States.

If you will please call at the closest United States Lines office in Germany, and ask them to send me or Mr. Joseph L. Tudryn, 258 River Drive, North Hadley, Massachusetts the cost of transportation for you from Germany to the United States.

Kindly do this at once, for the time is very short. The steamship company should cable us or Mr. Tudryn in the above matter.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Furtek:

Your letter of Dec. 5th has been received and wish to advise that we are unable to collect any money covering westbound accommodations unless we receive an official cable from our foreign office requesting us to do so.

We therefore suggest that you cable Miss Keilbach in Germany requesting that she get in touch with our office. If her papers are in order and space is available, she should instruct them to cable us to collect the necessary passage money, taxes, etc. either from you or Mr. Joseph Tudren, the purchaser.
